William Jay s Fifty Years Ministry; Argyle Chapel, Bath The members of Mr. Jay s family in America cannot resist the desire they feel to circulate this Memorial of the labours of their revered and honoured relative, (read by them with many tears, ) throughout the United States. His works, which have for so many years been extensively read and appreciated in America have prepared the way for its reception; and we doubt not that every admirer of his writings will read the Jubilee Memorial with the highest pleasure. It contains the record of events, the most important and interesting - an exhibition of principles and, sentiments the most Christian and lovely - and the details and illustrations of labours the most valuable and exemplary. May we not hope, as we earnestly pray, that these results from a single ministry - these labours from a single workman - this character in a single individual, and these testimonials from a single community, may stimulate all thus to shew themselves the servants of Christ, acceptable to God, and approved of men. It was resolved, on the occasion of the Jubilee, to present each of Mr. Jay s grandchildren in America with a copy of all the proceedings; this has been done - and it is from one of these copies this edition is now published.
