HE members of my family--that of part in wars until now. The Richthofens have always lived in the country; indeed, there has scarcely been one of them without a landed estate, and the few who did not live in the country have, as a rule, entered the State service. My grandfather and all my ancestors before him had estates about Breslau and Striegau. Only in the generation of my grandfather it happened that the first Richthofen* his cousin, became a General. My mother belongs to the family Von Schickfuss und Neudorf. Their character resembles that of the Richthofen people. There were a few soldiers in that family. taken no very great All the rest were agrarians. The brother of my great-grandfather Shickfuss fell in 1806. During the Revolution of 1848 one of the finest castles of a Schickfuss was burnt...
