Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Summary: From an autobiographical account of a near death experience, to long jazz poetry, to fables of southern slaves master reincarnating as gangster rappers, Canelo s acute sense of justice and divine irony are conveyed in top form. Please, enjoy! Introduction: Somebody once told me that teaching was the highest form of human to human communication. I think they were wrong. After looking closely at the behavior of aboriginal tribes, searching the expansive catalogue of American and Russian PSY experiments, and even turning through the pages of Psychic Warrior by David Morehouse, a book well worth reading, I say the spoken word is just an old bridge to cross before ascending up a mountain. This is what I believe. The original language of meaning is the highest form of human to human communication. The lonely word without the power of life, lacking honesty and force, and void of the fire of conviction, is a weak attempt at any explanation. Too often, as listeners, we go deprived. I can t count how many nights I desired to be comforted next to the fire of a strong and honest conversation. I can not count how many days I have replayed the words of great thinkers, great minds, through my computer speakers. Always, something in me races to hear the poet sing. And then, through pure observation, I can dream of what it must be like to become the poet. Life is more than what I think it is. I am no teacher of spiritual things. I m just a young man who is in love with the mystery. In love, I have the tendency to enjoy the chase immensely. My...
