Votes of members in your district in favour of abolishing systematic overtime. against Votes of members in your district in favour of abolishing piecework. against State the general feeling of the men employed at the trade in your district on the questions of piecework and systematic overtime. This schedule was to be filled tip and returned to the general secretary by the 14th of August. I do not know whether it has ever been asserted that the opinions of the men were not fairly taken on this Circular. No such assertion was made while the lock-out lasted; it is probable, therefore, that the voting was honest. The result was certainly curious--out of 11, 800 members upwards of 9, 000 voted, and of these only 16 in favour of piecework and systematic overtime. The Executive Council seem to have thought the battle already won when the result of this vote became known. They proceeded at once to act, and prepared two official Circulars, one addressed to the men, the other to the masters in the iron trades. On the 24th of November, 1851, these Circulars were published. The Circular to the men of the trades merely recapitulated the old arguments against systematic overtime and piecework as practised, and then set out the three following resolutions, which had been passed by the Executive Council, and which (as the Circular ended) they doubt not will be approved of and supported by the whole of the trade : --1....
