Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Glasgow Memorials When George Chalmers, in the third volume of his Caledonia, published in 1824, gave an account of Glasgow and its ecclesiastical arrangements, he had to supplement information obtainable from a limited command of ancient manuscripts by accepting the statements of local historians who had little opportunity of consulting original sources, and the learned author was thereby betrayed into a few inaccuracies. Gathering historical particulars in those days was no easy task, but in the eighty and odd years which have since intervened, facilities in that direction have accumulated, and with the extended knowledge brought within our reach most of the mistakes of previous writers may now be safely avoided. In systematic research the Maitland Club broke ground, in 1832, with the publication of extracts from the Municipal Records. But it was in connection with the Church that Glasgow as a municipality came into existence, and the publication of Registrum Episcopatus Glasguensis in 1843 did much to clear up the annals of the city from its foundation till the Reformation.
