Wren, for Relief: To the Honorable: The Senators and Representative, in Congress Assembled The other two sons serving three years and more. That, before enlisting as above stated, she sold off her household furniture and what property she had - investing most of her capital in fine hospital stores, which were taken with the regiment to the Army of the Potomac at Camp California, and there gratuitously distributed to the 1st Brigade of Sumner's old division and likewise to the Second or Irish Brigade, thus inaugurating a private Sanitary Commission. She remained with the army during their movements, having charge of Clermont Hospital in the winter of 1861 and 1862, until a general order was issued forbidding Matrons to accompany the troops in the field; she then took charge of Judiciary Square Hospital, in Washington, reforming many of the abuses of that institution. Failing health obliged a relinquishment of that position. With the residue of her means, she rented the houses No. 441 and 444 K Street, Washington, D....
