Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This report presents data on the early care and education arrangements and selected family activities of children in the United States from birth through the age of 5 who were not yet enrolled in kindergarten in the spring of 2012. The report also presents data on parents satisfaction with various aspects of these care arrangements and on their participation in various learning activities with their children. For each category of information included in the report, the results are broken down by child, parent, and family characteristics. The data in this report are from the 2012 National Household Education Surveys Program (NHES:2012) Early Childhood Program Participation (ECP) Survey. The ECP survey is used to collect information on children from birth through age 6 who are not yet enrolled in kindergarten. Prior to the 2012 ECP survey that is the focus of the current report, the survey was last conducted in 2005. The ECP asks detailed questions about children s participation in relative care, nonrelative care, and center-based care arrangements. It also asks about the main reason...
